PREFACE

The four years that loomed ahead of us as freshmen have quickly flown by. While the cold war raged about us, the Aberjona wound its way through Winchester and we also wound our way through Winchester High. The river moves on and so must we. As we leave, facing the future with plans, ideals, and a little fear of the rocky path we face, we carry with us a great many never-to-be-forgotten memories. It is the memories of our last and perhaps most cherished year that we present in this book, the Aberjona, of the class of 1960.

To you, Mr. Niblock, who arrived with us as freshmen, we, the class of 1960, present our year-book. For we feel bound to you by a very special tie, that of being your first start-to-finish graduating class. As we complete our four years at WHS, so also do you complete yours.

Our years with you as a guide and director have been memorable and exciting. We have seen the advent and been a part of your new methods and plans. We have witnessed your un-failing good-nature and school spirit ranging from the auditorium stage to the basketball court. And we have felt the influence of your experience, wisdom, and wonderful attitude toward all the students of our high school in everything we have attempted.

It is in deep appreciation for your confidence, faith, and everlasting trust in us that we honor you, our principal.

The 1960 Aberjona staff, under the patient guidance of Mr. Aversa, has once again produced a yearbook with the diligence, imagination, and co-operation of many seniors. Editor Larry Capodilupo, with the help of Mercedita Smith, has been busy supervising the work of the many diverse departments.

The Editorial Staff, consisting of Betty Cuff, Sharon Nyere, Judy Powers, Vicki Soucek, and Christie Trump, was divided into the class department and the feature section. The girls worked hard as they collected and edited biographies, wrote articles for the clubs, and raced to meet deadlines. Kit Keeton and David Penner, as the excellent copy editors, checked our spelling and grammar. Special thanks goes to Donna Woodcock for her never-ending perseverance and cheerfulness as head typist.

Ronnie Chabot and Warren Kelley headed one of the largest business departments in Aberjona history. As they formed the subscription and advertising staffs, collected ads, and sold a great number of yearbooks, the boys were appreciative of the willingness and co-operation of the Seniors working under them. Many thanks also go to Regina Nutile for the fine work she has done as a member of the advertising department.

All the artwork was done under the supervision of Steve Cochran and Sue Foster. They have strived to present an original theme. The Sports Section was competently edited by Dale Grinnell and Ginny Lawton. Lauren Keene, as head of the photography department, has provided us with better pictures than ever before.

The entire staff has worked with great devotion to make the 1960 Aberjona a huge success. We hope that you will enjoy the yearbook as much as we have enjoyed putting it together.

FACULTY

All of us have some regrets about leaving Winchester High, even though for four years we have worked toward graduation with undeniably eager anticipation. One regret common to everyone is that of leaving the Winchester High School faculty, to whom we are indebted for the knowledge and confidence they have given us in the past four years. In spite of occasional grumbles when a "monstrous homework assignment" was passed out, we know that it is largely through the infinite patience, sincere understanding, and firm guidance of our faculty that we have successfully reached our goal of graduation.

So, here's to the faculty! We can never express the deep gratitude we feel toward them; rather we will strive to express it by building happy and wholesome lives on the basis of our cherished experience at Winchester High.

CLASS HISTORY

Class History

Dear Underclassmen,

Having spent the past four years in these hallowed halls, we look back over our experiences here with mingled happiness and regret.

In 1956 the best additions to WHS arrived—our Freshman class and a new principal, Mr. Howard Niblock. Our high school politics began with the election of Brian Cullen, Sue Fisher, Paul Del Rossi, and Phil Nichols as class officers. We'll always remember the fire which made the Boston headlines—"1000 students flee burning building!" . . . Mr. Power's concert . . . Miss Bailey's unforgettable classes and birthday parties . . . discovering the prowess of our athletes when the basketball team came through undefeated . . . Mr. Morse's first Vaudeville show . . . our dancing-school days and especially our first formal, tuxes et al . . . losing sleep over our first mid-years, or was it Linda's slumber party? . . . winning the New England's for the second consecutive year . . . "veni, vidi, vici" . . . our first Tech Tourney . . . and last, but not least, our finals.

As tried and tested sophomores, we plunged into another year of studies and success led by Roger Deminico, Phil Nichols, Peter Luitwieler and John Hosmer. Music in the cafeteria . . . and music from the changing voices of our four Accents—Larry Capodilupo, Vandy French, Gardy Gray, and Larry O'Keefe . . . our own dance, "Spring Hop" . . . the boys winning their first varsity letters . . . Mr. Skerry's reviewing Caesar's ghost . . . the unexpected snow storms in March giving us undeserved vacations . . . "Around the World" in Vaudeville . . . those agonizing speeches in English . . . the crowded trains bound for the Boston Garden in order to cheer on the basketball team and then over to the Arena for the hockey game . . . cram, cram—more mid-years, and finals—then onward and upward to greater things we went, with these fond memories accompanying us.

Our Junior year saw many changes . . . a great new crop of upperclassmen—us! . . . and the staggered schedule . . . Paul Del Rossi, Sue Fisher, Vicki Soucek, and Peter Luitwieler guided our steps and added to the treasury by selling Sachem pens and holding another dance, "Autumn Leaves" . . . The courses in driver-training were a struggle, but we were so thrilled to get our licenses . . . We gained our share of honors, too . . . Ronny receiving the Harvard Book Prize . . . Mercedita winning the Phi Beta Kappa Award . . . Linda, Betsy, and Dave winning the United Nations Essay Contest and a trip to New York . . . Diana as the only one in our class to make the all-star cast of One-Act Play Night . . . our own National Honor Society members, Quill and Scrollers, and National Thespians . . . Marcia representing us at the National Red Cross Convention . . . our own Red and Black . . . Betsy and Artie representing us at the Tufts Citizenship Conference . . . Dana representing us at Boys' State . . . Mappy, Widge, Sharon, Betsy, Sue, and Verna making the Octette . . . Sharon's being named to the All-Star Cast at the Massachusetts Drama Festival. We recall the introduction of the social code . . . getting our class rings at the Ring Dance in February. This really made us feel like upperclassmen! . . . the wonderful night rally . . . more unearned vacations with the breaking of the water main and the flu epidemic . . . waltzing through Vaudeville and the adult's version of it, the "Phun for All" . . . the G.I.C. auction with kittens and blind dates galore . . . our first taste of S.A.T.'s . . . saddened by Dan O'Donnell's departure . . . and then again our grueling finals . . . another year of studies and happiness successfully brought to a close.

Then too suddenly we were seniors, full of fears, anticipations, and hopes. We were happy to see Miss Trickett as Dean of Girls, but saddened by the unfortunate illness of Mr. Stevens, our good friend and advisor. Once again Paul, Sue, Vicki, and Peter were chosen to make this our best year ever. We'll always remember the football team, and too, that tremendous Winchester-Woburn girls' football game with Junie Perritano as their efficient coach . . . Ann and Marcia uniting all the Sachem's war cries . . . Alice and Shirley leading the tumblettes through rain and shine . . . Gayle's winning "Best Director" and One-Act Play Night . . . Dave Penner, Reggie Nutile, and John Bell making their TV debut on WGBH . . . Dennis Baker as a finalist in the Westinghouse Science Contest and Debbie Wadsworth as our Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow . . . the new hockey leagues which meant the sad discarding of our hockey cheerleaders . . . Phil and Donny, Alex, Vandy, Dana, Joe, Richie, Paul, and Peter proving themselves more than worthy of having been chosen captains and likewise

Sue, Karen, Paula and Sue leading especially fine teams . . . Vandy's presiding over the AA assemblies . . . what a switch it was when we had a vacation because too many teachers were out with the flu! . . . our memorable Junior-Senior Play . . . the exciting night we captured the hockey league crown and became co-champs in basketball . . . Billy's being the league leader in goals and assists . . . the big research job . . . Vandy attending Student Government Day . . . We'll never forget dancing through the "Four Seasons" in Vaudeville . . . and rushing to get those college applications in on time . . . our last finals and then the Big Weekend—our own Senior Prom, Class Night, parties galore, and the climax of our four years in high school—graduation.

Now we venture forth, apart from our classmates and yet always with them. We hope following classes will strive to accumulate all the knowledge and guidance this wonderful school and its faculty have offered us. And that they too will leave with as many memories and as much confidence in the future. Few schools could have given us much more and no class will be more grateful than ours.

Respectfully and hopefully yours,
THE CLASS OF 1960

Class Will

We, the students of the Class of 1960 of Winchester High School, being of unquestionably weak mind and intelligence, do hereby bequeath to the underclassmen who have endured so much from us these past years, our many talents and traits which we feel might compensate for our presence during these four years, declaring this to be our last will and testament.

I, Paul Francis, leave the Curtain and Cue in financial bankruptcy.

I, Sandy Cochran, leave my way with the girls to Peter Sullivan.

To John Reardon do I, Richie Winn, leave my speech for Woburn High.

I, David Penner, leave to Jim Bradley any science course he hasn't already taken.

We, Mercedita Smith and Judy Powers, leave our books in the wastebasket.

I, Steve Brock, leave a hot water bottle to Sheila Donahue.

I, Betty Cuff, leave my Colgate sweatshirt to rot.

We, Brian Cullen and Dana Kelley, leave Mr. Nugent a quiet study hall.

I, George Bollweg, leave the WHSR radio turned on.

I, Gayle Porter, leave a bag of oats to Lynne Pettingell.

We, Linda Cantella and Sue Mucera, leave our "togetherness" to Julie Palmer and Janice Davidson.

I, Ronny Fairfield, leave my poise to Sally Clark.

I, Rose Thorne, leave my famous name to "Rhoda Dendron."

I, Peter Branch, leave Winchester all lit up.

We, Sharon Nyere and John Bell, leave our love seat on the stage.

I, Priscilla Horn, leave my pleasant disposition to Susan Nanry.

I, Ruth Masterson, leave, smiling.

We, Bill Niblock, Frannie Weafer, and Bill Fitts, leave our fathers still in high school.

I, Don Brown, leave my long legs to Phil Mead.

I, Jean Caldwell, leave, still saying, "No, I'm Jean—not Joan."

I, Sylvia Gustavson, leave, still reviewing my "French."

We, Paul Hopkins and Mary Shanley, leave bashfully.

I, Warren Kelley, leave Miss Milliken with more Modern Problems than she has ever had.

I, Verna Carlson, leave "over hill, over Dale."

I, Justin Callahan, leave in my Chevrolet (?), and I, Peter Luitwieler, with my "Dodge."

I, Debbie Wadsworth, leave as the "Homemaker of Tomorrow."

I, Ginny Lawton, leave with my sports notebook in hand.

I, Dennis Baker, leave my weather station to Don Kent.

We, Marcia Eaton and Sue Fisher, leave our many offices to be filled by qualified underclassmen.

I, Larry Capodilupo, leave "deadlines to meet" to next year's Aberjona staff.

I, June Van Dyke, leave, still arguing to have Hockey Cheerleaders.

We, Alice Dunn, Shirley Bingham, Carol Chute, Sue Ellen Chase, and Sandy Bruno, leave, tumbling through our hula hoops.

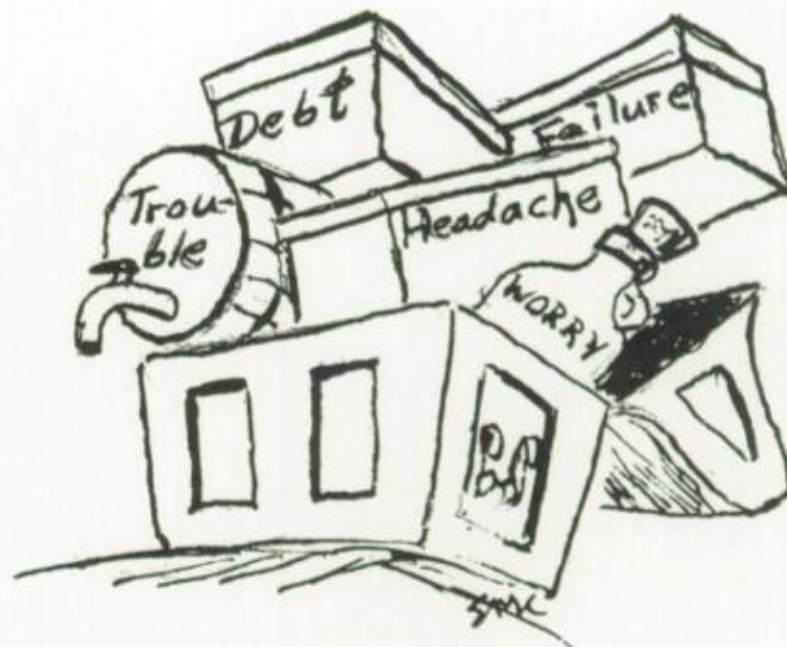

I, Carmelline Holland, leave in style.

I, Sue Murphy, leave once again for West Point.

I, Martha Dyer, leave Annisquam to Sue Manimon.

I, Paul White, leave my reservation in the clouds to Ambrose Devaney.

I, Billy Lamarche, leave the Middlesex goalies in a state of confusion.

I, Barbara Jellison, leave a bag of my famous jelly-beans to the Easter bunny.
 I, Kit Keeton, leave my musical ability to Peggy Padelford.
 I, Achsa Clark, leave my outside ties being a little "Binding."
 We, Anne Billman and Linda Lantz, leave our savoir faire and dexterity in modern dance to Nola Carucci and Connie Littleton.
 I, Nancy Lane, leave my never-ending peppiness to Barbara Corey.
 To Mr. Clean do we, Vicki Soucek and Carl Gustin, leave our neatness.
 I, Chris Stavaridis, leave Mr. Finigan a joke book.
 We, David Bentley and Bill Doten, leave our Melrose parties.
 I, Hugh Phillips, leave the Sachems for the "Sioux."
 We, Richard French, Betsy Schaefer, and Nancy Morrison, leave the editors' conferences to any "adventurous" journalistic juniors.
 I, Janet Turpin, leave the Home Economics room in an uproar.
 I, Phil Nichols, leave the underclass girls with a little common "cents."
 We, the eleven senior girls in the Octette, leave next year's success to our one junior, Martha Maloney.
 I, Joy Ann Mitchell, leave my deadly set shot to George Neville.
 I, John Comstock, leave my "hot Stude" to any one who wants it.
 I, Richie Cardullo, leave my "What! Me worry?" attitude to Bobby Fontaine.
 We, the Class of 1960's Traffic Squad, leave our Gestapo methods.
 To Terry Collins do I, Gardy Gray, leave my "thinking man" looks.
 I, Gail Pettingell, leave to make room for the rest of the Pettingell girls.

We, Jean Lamphier and Reggie Nutile, leave to go bicycling to Harvard at midnight.
 We, Roger DeMinico and Judy Davis, leave our appetites to Mrs. Travis as scientific wonders.
 We, Shelley Patterson and Matt Anderson, leave WHSR with a sigh of relief.
 I, Paul Del Rossi, leave my pitching ability to anyone interested in the big leagues.
 I, Bruce MacKay, leave my devilish looks to Paul Mulloy.
 I, Vandy French, leave my versatility to Mike Brink.
 I, Joan Rentel, leave the Winchester Philharmonic for broader horizons.
 We, Sue Carter and Dennis McCormack, leave our palettes to next year's Rembrandts.
 To WHSH-FM do I, Karen Uhlig, leave a stack of Bob Richardson's Trio tapes.
 I, Christie Trump, leave my sophisticated ways to Peggy Knowles.
 I, Debbie Donovan, do bequeath my famous parties to Dianne Watson.
 I, Widge Blake, leave on a high note.
 I, Roberta Mulford, leave my lifting laugh to Paulette Barges.
 We, Nancy Anderson and Louise Coady, leave quietly.
 We, the Class of 1960, leave with deep appreciation and thanks extended to Mr. Stevens and Mr. Cooper for their unforgettable patience and understanding.

Class Prophecy

Boston Announcer:

We hear from the news announcer on WHSR that the 17th reunion of the Class of 1960 of Winchester High School is being held this evening, July 31, 1977, on the Winchester Common. This program is being brought to you by Gleem with June VanDyke, their well-known model. We now hear the National Anthem being sung by Verna Carlson accompanied by "T-Will" Leighton. Reporting the news is George Bollweg.

This evening, folks, Winchester is the scene of much excitement. Here at the head table we have "Fireball" Fisher, first lady President of the United States, accompanied by her able body of secretaries: Arrigo, Benninato and Bowler. On the President's left we see Kelly and Collins, all-time Olympic champions, and on her right Dennis Baker, Ambassador to Russia (which now, incidentally, is dictated by Matt Anderson). Thanks to Cardullo-Cantella Catering Co. Inc. and Puzzo-Nibbles non-tobacco puffing products, tonight's gathering is sure to be a success. Decorations are by Eaton and Cuff. Sandy Bruno and Sue Goodwin invited Lawton, Cabot and Keene to their penthouse atop the flagpole in order to view the festivities for a big spread in the Schaefer Times, edited by Richard French.

L'll Churchill is on hand to interview arrivals for Patterson's "Person to Person Show." First arrivals show up in Cochran's Morris. Bonnie MacLellan, starring in Bell & Stone's new production "The Men," steps out first followed by Mappy Mouradian wrapped in her newest Oriental rug. Barbara Kastle, Donna Dinapoli, Ann Billman, Phyllis Carroll and Nancy Galiazzo show up sporting Yul Brynner hair-cuts. Ganchi & Gangi are passing out "Kookie" combs to Christie Trump, Judy Powers and Patty Hussy. And here comes Fontaine's fabulous T-bird with Barbara Jellison tossing jelly beans to the screaming crowd led by Davis and Nichols. The "dungaree dolls," Usher and Wadsworth, pop up next. Roberta Mulford (excited as usual) appears feet first from the window, followed by Blake and Pollard, co-mayors of Wellesley, who are handing out parking permits to Mary Jane Anderson and Bobby Lee Carroll. Smith, Dyer, Nutile, Dunn and Donovan are peppily pumping Stevens' cycles furiously trying to beat Porter on her Palomino. Roberta Henry and Pat Doherty are the last arrivals, coming from the new First National owned by Roger Deminico. We just saw "Apple" Callahan, who's recuperating from a broken arm, which was set by Cindy Stewart and Marsha Bassford, all of whom are talking to John Comstock, who has just invented a new tonic for making hair grow, "Comstock's Concentrated Concoction for Crazy Craniums."

The MCs for tonight's grand gathering are Warren Kelley, Shelly Berman's understudy, and "Witty" Howes. The first act is Uhlig's Bongo Players (Mary Alla, Mariana Ross, Mary Moran, and Marion Clogston). Continuing with the festivities we see Harrigan, O'Keefe & O'Leary, headed by the two Murphys, giving their interpretation of the Irish jig. The Trio of Anderson, Coady, and Shanley will do their rendition of "I Enjoy Being a Girl."

Turning sportswise, we hear that "Freem," "Delsi" and "Leva" have reached 8'9" and are playing for a newly organized team called "Cappy's Coolies." Nice work boys! Branch (alias Marce-LL), Hosmer, "Griffles," Eaton and Scott have all arrived and are eating with their silver plated hockey sticks. And there's "Wee Will" Lamarche, who has won the title of Highest High Scorer in the U.S. League. Carl "Atlas" Arlanson, Joe "The Crusher" Capone, Tom "Triceps" Cox, and "Terrible" Tom Dashbach have joined a world-wide ping pong club called "Purtle's Purties." Sue Mucera has won a trophy for doing a headstand with Eddie Ehrgott, which lasted for three days.

White, Black, Gray and Brown have invented a new color scheme for Carter & McCormack's palette. George Tisdale is "still" manufacturing homemade liquor to sell to the favorite foursome Fitts, Penner, Logan and Haggerty.

Sitting among the "Willows" watching the crowds are the "Troubled Triplets" McGhee, Errico and Perritano. Visiting dignitaries from Washington, along with our own Mayor Cullen, and his political protégé, Carol Larson, are Sirs Ronald Chabot, Joseph Butare, Jr., and Dale Grinnell. Dave Eddy and Al Duffy have just told us that the "Kitchen Boys" Dom, Nick and Jim have quit Howard Johnson's, leaving them bankrupt.

Ann "Zalphabet" Abbott is trying to catch the eye of Vandy and Sylvia French, Mother and Father of the Year. Steve Brock, cutting capers as usual, has just rammed his bronze Mercedes into the beautiful Baldwin piano being played by Joan Rentel, who has recently finished a 12 year engagement at Carnegie Hall.

Bulletin! Bulletin! The tremendous tumbling team of Allen, Houlding, and Gustin has successfully completed its trip around the world—doing back flips! And there's Jeff "The Giant" Johnson with his harem including "Curvacious" Carol Chute, "Mild" Sue Meek, Karen "Kool Man" Kolligian, and Sue "Legs" Ferazzi.

There seems to be a commotion under the flag pole! The two Sues have met the challenge offered to them by the Melrose Wrestling Team of 1960. Dave Bentley managed the brawl and "It was," he said, "an overwhelming victory for the twosome." Vicki Soucek and Sonja Weeks with their binoculars are scanning the illustrious alumni and have spotted Bonnie Bond, Sue Foster, Jane Smith, and Jean and Joan Caldwell keeping things lively at the Library.

Rounding McCormack's corner in the driver training car are Carol Gilberto and Linda Nelson under the instruction of Gail Pettingell.

Now, everyone over to Peter's for one of his famous parties.

This bit of handiwork was written while "Weafer" was "Chase"ing "Bingham" down the "Hall."

Student Council

This year's Student Council, under the leadership of President Larry Capodilupo and the capable guidance of Mr. Meredith Cooper, had a very successful year by starting off with the sale of W.H.S. book covers.

The election of class officers was held under the direction of the council. Vandy French was chosen by the student body to represent W.H.S. on Student Government Day.

Ushering by Council members during the Parents' Open House at school was another successful project. A majority of the Council attended the Eastern Massachusetts Division of Student Council's Convention. The spring dance sponsored by the Council put a finishing touch to a successful and profitable year. Other officers for this year included George Neville, Vice-President; Shirley Bingham, Secretary; and Susan Nanry, Treasurer.

Red Cross

As in past years, the Red Cross has done many worthwhile activities. The first project of the year was the membership drive and election of homeroom representatives. In December, the club did a great job in cheering up the veterans at Bedford Hospital. Under the leadership of President Paul White and the guidance of Miss Bronson, the Red Cross was able to collect many Christmas cards which brightened the hearts of the veterans. The Octette also helped to bring them a happier Christmas.

A committee, headed by Vicki Soucek, gave their services in order to help the United Fund. The Red Cross also sent 75 dollars to the International Children's Fund and collected numerous magazines for the grateful Bedford veterans.

Other officers for this year, who have truly done a great job included Roger DeMinico, Vice-President; Vicki Soucek, Secretary; Joe Dattilo, Treasurer; and Alan MacDonald, Publicity Manager.

Red and Black

Under the leadership of Editor-in-Chief Richard French, the Red and Black had its twenty-second successful year of publication. The year was marked by several important improvements, including the dropping of one issue to bring the total to a more convenient nine. Many more good photographs, larger advertisements, more interesting make-up and headlines, and better news and feature coverage were also important changes.

The assistance which Miss Skornik and the new adviser, Mr. Lewis, rendered to the school paper, was invaluable to the senior staff. This year the staff had the extra chore of training the incoming juniors in the field of newspaper publication, as the Journalism class had been dropped from the school curriculum.

Row 1: S. Nyere, N. Morrison, B. Schaefer, R. French, J. Powers, V. Lawton, V. Carlson. Row 2: S. Weeks, B. Cuff, C. Chute, J. Pollard, R. Nutile, M. Smith, Mr. Lewis.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. It is open to students who are in the upper third of their class scholastically and who have exhibited outstanding accomplishments and talent in a specific phase of journalism. Through annual contests and constructive criticism, Quill and Scroll aids high schools in the organization and publication of their newspapers and magazines. In its eleventh year at Winchester High, Quill and Scroll had as its members Sharon Nyere, Virginia Lawton, Sonja Weeks, Mercedita Smith, and Regina Nutile.

S. Nyere, M. Smith, R. Nutile, S. Weeks, and V. Lawton.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society membership is determined by a combined student and faculty vote. No more than 5% of the junior class and 15% of the senior class can be elected. Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor the school can bestow, and members are picked on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The society meets several times during the year with its advisors, Mr. Fitts and Miss Bronson, to elect officers and plan the induction ceremony which takes place in May. This year, the members also nominated Thomas Edison for the National Hall of Fame. Ronnie Chabot is this year's president, Dale Grinnell is vice-president, and Judy Powers is secretary-treasurer.

Row 1: M. Smith, V. French, J. Powers, R. Chabot, D. Grinnell, V. Soucek, A. Dunn. Row 2: D. Baker, J. Butare, L. Nelson, Mr. Fitts, B. Schaefer, and D. Penner.

National Thespian Society

Row 1: S. Nyere, N. Stone, D. Wadsworth. Row 2: B. Cuff, M. Dyer, V. Lawton, S. Patterson.

The National Thespian Society, an honorary dramatics group, is a nationwide organization formed to further active work in the dramatic arts. Winchester High School's chapter, Troupe 729, has been under the skillful direction of Mr. Morse since it was first established ten years ago. Any student who has completed one hundred hours of work in a field of dramatics—acting, staging, or production—is eligible for the honor of Thespian. Members of the society can gain further recognition by earning a star for each additional one hundred hours of service. Every spring new members are initiated at the group's annual meeting.

The students who are members of the National Thespian Society form the center of Winchester High's dramatic activities. This year's members were Nancy Stone, Sharon Nyere, Shelley Patterson, Martha Dyer, Betty Cuff, and Ginny Lawton.

Row 1: J. Stevens, A. Merritt, P. Mead, J. Blake, D. Williams, B. Phillips, M. MacKay, C. Johnson, R. Giger, R. Sjöholm, D. Smith, W. Saunders. Row 2: R. Chabot, J. Donovan, C. Switzer, J. Band

The band, in their bright red uniforms, added color and music to all the football games this fall. The eighty-five members, under the fine direction of Mr. Wendell S. Withington, had an excellent distribution of wind, brass, and percussion players.

In their annual spring concert the band had a chance to play both classical and popular music. Again they came up with a fine rating in the Northeastern Music Festival, in which most of the towns in northeastern Massachusetts participated. At the Memorial Day Parade the band paid a tribute to the former veterans of past wars. The completion of their successful season was their performance at graduation.

Orchestra

This year the orchestra had a very successful season under the able direction of Mr. Wendell S. Withington. Over fifty strings contributed to making it the largest orchestra ever at W.H.S. At the Christmas program the orchestra played two popular medleys, "Three Songs for Christmas" and the well-known Anderson's "Christmas Festival." In February they had another chance to play at a combined concert with Lexington. This concert, which has become an annual affair, gave them the chance to become acquainted with the players and director of another high school orchestra. After the Northeastern Music Festival in May, the orchestra finished its season with the annual spring concert.

Curtain and Cue

First on the agenda for Curtain and Cue, Winchester High's dramatic club, was the annual One Act Play Night. Their donation to a merrier Yuletide was "Christmas Night," which was held with the assistance of the Orchestra and Glee Clubs. The Junior-Senior Play committee selected "Father of the Bride," which was a tremendous success. Curtain and Cue also sent a play to the Drama Festival, looking forward to a repetition of the success of last year's play, "Mary of Scotland." This busy year ended with the annual Spring Apprentice Play.

The club, the largest in New England, was under the capable leadership of President, Martha Dyer; Vice-President, George Neville; Secretary, Betty Cuff; and Treasurer, Paul Francis. The Executive Board included Gayle Porter, James MacDonald, Virginia Scaturro, and Terry Vercollone, with Mr. McLaughlin as the able advisor.

Junior-Senior Play

When a man's only daughter falls in love with a "pair of shoulders" and suddenly decides to get married, many troubles arise. This was the theme of "Father of the Bride," by Carolyn Franke, the Junior-Senior play for 1960.

The play begins as Mr. Banks (Dave Penner) discovers at breakfast one morning that his only daughter is planning to get married. What follows is easily summed up as "a complete state of confusion." Mr. Banks' understanding wife (Betty Cuff) tries to console him and make him understand how simple weddings can be, but fails completely in her attempt.

Kay Banks, their lovely daughter (Sharon Nyere), and her fiance, Buckley Dunstan (John Bell), want only a simple wedding with a few friends and no fussing. What results is a wedding list of five hundred guests and a planned gala reception at the Banks' house following the wedding.

After a small lover's quarrel, the couple are reconciled (practically) until the day of the marriage. The groom gets cold feet, the bride falls to pieces, the younger brother, Tommy (Bob Leander), loses his cufflinks and shirt, but the wedding finally takes place.

Paul Francis as Ben, Kay's older brother; Nancy Stone, as Miss Bellamy, Mr. Banks' secretary; Peggy Padelford as Delilah the maid; and Massoula, the caterer, played by Al Bonney, were especially to be commended for their performances. Others in the play were Don Brown, Charles Corey, Bob Korwatch, Matt Anderson, Carl Gustin, and Sue Murphy.

The play was a tremendous success, and was headed by three National Thespians and other outstanding actors in the two classes. Many thanks and much praise go to Mr. Edmund MacCloskey, the director, who produced such a fine performance.

"Father of the Bride"

One Act Play Night

After many hardships encountered by the Winchester High School student directors, assistants, and casts, One Act Play Night was again a great success.

The Freshman class, a new-comer to fame, was awarded "best play" with their presentation of Pot Luck. Gayle Porter and Linda Chase ably directed the class. The Senior Class, directed by Martha Dyer and Janet Cussen, presented Shadow of a Dream. The Junior Class play was Touch of Fancy, and was directed by Betty Cuff and Donna Cartier. The sophomores presented The Little Nuisance, which was directed by Ann Abbott and Judy Caniff.

The All-Star Cast consisted of Junior Bucky Nichols; Sophomores Mitchell Strohl and Pamela Smith; and Freshman Judy Blake. Gayle Porter and Linda Chase received the award for the best directors of the evening.

Sharon Nyere was the General Chairman of the affair. Many thanks are due to Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Morse, the co-ordinators, for their special efforts.

Traffic Squad

"All men at their posts!" "Aye, Captain Cullen, we're ready."

As soon as the second bell rang, students seemed to pour from everywhere, going up and down stairs, around in circles, and through doorways. Our big, brave senior boys held the doors and somehow managed to keep traffic running smoothly.

There was always the problem of gossiping girls cluttering up the hallways, and people who went up "Down" stairways, but every job has some compensation. In this case, you noticed that the traffic officers seemed to have more permanent visitors than any other group in the school.

This year's Traffic Squad has done a superb job of keeping the traffic in line. Let's hope for the same efficiency and high standards in next year's squad.

Science Club

The Science Club members have enjoyed some very unusual trips this year, one of which was a trip to see the solar eclipse in October. They started off with some colored film ready for the eventful morning, but to their disappointment, were rained out and ended up without a visible eclipse. The other three projects proved more successful. They included the annual field trip to Tracer Lab and the showing of two Bell Telephone Science Films entitled "Our Mr. Sun" and "Alphabet Conspiracy."

The officers for this year were James Bradley, President; Dale Grinnell, Vice-President; Frank Spang, Secretary; Alvin Swonger, Treasurer; and Executive Board, William Haggerty, Joseph Butare, and Richard Osgood. The club was under the very capable supervision of Mrs. Travis, head of the Science Department.

Math Club

This year the Math Club, which was open to Juniors and Seniors taking Math, had an active and interesting year under the capable guidance of Mr. John Waite, the faculty advisor. Plans for the year included preparing for the annual Newton math competition, and having speakers from various mathematical fields and professions. Dues were collected for the first time in order to purchase an advanced math book for the high school library.

Officers of the club were: Dennis Baker, President; Dale Grinnell, Vice-President; and Vandy French, Secretary-Treasurer.

Philosophy Club

The members of the Philosophy Club, under the leadership of Mr. Skerry, had a very interesting and informative year. During the first meeting of the year the club elected Steve Cochran as President, Leslie Usher as Vice-President, Sue Ellen Chase as Secretary, and Nancy Hoffman as Assistant Secretary. As the year progressed, the Philosophy Club enjoyed many enlightened meetings, which included slides on the Antarctica shown by George Denton, a talk on India by Mr. Lahl, and slides of her trip through Switzerland by Miss Trickett. A Program Committee consisting of Joe Emerson, Warren Kelley, Jeanne Lamphier, Regina Nutile, Mercedita Smith, and Claudia Kirkpatrick was chosen to set up the many entertaining meetings.

Thrift Association

Under the capable leadership of Ronald Chabot, the Thrift Association has aided the students of Winchester High in another successful year of banking. Every Tuesday morning banking takes place with home room representatives collecting banking envelopes from the students. These then go to Ronald Chabot, who, with the assistance of a bank representative, does the necessary computing for the Winchester Savings Bank and the school records.

This year, the Thrift Association completed another year of banking by aiming to develop an interest in saving and by establishing better habits of thrift. The year was especially successful, for many students took advantage of the convenience of the Association.

WHSR-FM

"And now, stay tuned for . . ." and so another show is broadcast over Winchester High's own radio station. WHSR ("at 91.9 megacycles on your F.M. Band") is a fully equipped ten-watt educational station, licensed by the Federal Communications Commission.

Every weekday morning from 7:20-8:00, "Wake Up, Winchester" fills the town with music and news. Regular shows are broadcast on Wednesday and Friday afternoons, from 3:00-7:15 P. M. All home football and basketball games, assemblies, and other important events are broadcast, too. WHSR-FM features not only classical and popular music, sports, and news, but plays, interviews, and special reports.

Under the excellent direction of Mr. Morse, the WHSR staff consists of two student station managers, Shelley Patterson and Matthew Anderson, and two chief engineers, George Bollweg and Dennis McCormack, as well as two people in charge of each department of radio broadcasting.

Devotional Committee

Every morning at 8:10, the solemn notes of organ music are heard throughout the school. Schoolwork is laid aside and the entire student body joins together for a few minutes of prayer. The excellent guidance of Miss Milliken and Mr. McLaughlin greatly helps the Committee to give a simple, but meaningful daily program. Every student is inspired by the thought for the day which gives a brief message for assistance in daily living. Presenting the devotional exercises over the public address system is a truly worthwhile innovation, one that gives a deeper meaning to our high school days.

This year the Committee, headed by Sue Murphy, accomplished much in morning devotions.

Library Assistants

This was the first year for a new group designed to give interested students a chance to become better acquainted with their library.

The Library Assistants were under the direction of Miss Livingstone, our own W.H.S. librarian, and the girls got an inside view of the trials and tribulations of running a well-organized library. Among other things they filed index cards, filed books, kept the catalogs in order, and in short, actually helped run the library. They were a tremendous help to Miss Livingstone.

These prospective librarians found the work both enjoyable and worthwhile, and it is hoped that the group will continue its success in later years.

Girls' Glee Club

Every Tuesday and Friday, during D block, the melodious voices of the Girls' Glee Club flowed from the Music Room. Under the able direction of Mr. Wendell S. Withington, they practiced semi-popular numbers and show-tunes. The hard work of the vocalists was rewarded by performances at "Christmas at WHS," the Spring Concert, and the State Music Festival which took place in the spring.

Octette

The members of the Octette, composed of ten seniors and one junior, have sung their way through another successful year. With Sharon Nyere as their able accompanist, the girls have performed at numerous activities including "Christmas at W.H.S.," a Rotary Club luncheon, the Mistletoe Dance, the Bedford Hospital, and the Music Festival. The music has ranged from show tunes such as "Lullaby of Broadway" to the barber-shop harmony of "Caroline." Special thanks goes to Mr. Withington who has spent so much of his time and energy directing the Octette.

Mixed Glee Club

"Strike the harp and join the chorus . . ." Sixty qualified young freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior voices blended together to form the dulcet tones that echoed from the Music Room each Monday and Wednesday mornings. Mr. Withington and the pianist, Sharon Nyere, led the songsters through many hours of preparation before each of the performances. "Christmas at WHS," Spring Concert, and the Music Festival made up this year's program.

Mr. Withington offered a wide variety of music, including seasonal songs, show tunes, anthems, and religious hymns. The students worked hard to reach perfection, and when the final day of the performance came, they were always well prepared.

Athletic Association

The main function of the Athletic Association is to promote athletics at W.H.S. Through award assemblies, rallies, and dances, the AA strives to inspire school spirit and participation in the various sports. The annual Fall Sports Dance, featuring Larry Lane's band, was an outstanding success again this year. The AA was also responsible for the smooth operation of this year's fall and winter sports award assemblies.

President Vandy French and Vice-President Billy Leighton contributed much to the success of this year's program. They were ably assisted by the faculty advisor, Mr. Burns.

This year's board feels that school spirit at sports events is of the utmost importance in preserving the "win" in Winchester. Here's hoping the Sachems maintain their all important enthusiasm and winning ways in the seasons to come.

Girls' Intramural Council

Bookkeepers, mathematicians, hostesses, auctioneers, spirit boosters, and this year, doughnut sellers, as well as athletes, that, in short, describes the Girls' Intramural Council.

Their main purpose, as stated in their constitution, is to encourage leadership, service, sportsmanship, and spirit, and to provide activities for all girls, both athletes and non-athletes.

This year they carried out their purpose by holding their annual auction and tallying up the GIC points earned by participants in athletics. New during '59 and '60 was their reorganized basketball tournament and their selling of donuts at the boys' basketball games.

Gail Pettingell, President; Sue Koch, Vice-President; Martha Dodge, Secretary; Betsy Schaefer, Treasurer and the six member Executive Board made up this year's council.

Cheerleaders

Whether it's with the familiar "Hey! hey! what do you say! Take it down the other way!" or the unpronounceable "Iscabibleotentoten! Sis! Boom! Bah! Winchester High School! Rah! Rah! Rah!", the Sachem cheerleaders could be seen at every football and basketball game urging the teams on to victory. Always striving to keep the "win" in Winchester, the cheerleaders worked long hours practicing and making pep signs. And when the spirits of the team seemed to lag and a few boos could be heard from the crowd, they were quickly drowned out by the cheerleaders leading the rest of the fans in a "That's OK! That's all right! That just shows them we can fight!"

Led by Co-Captains Marcia Eaton and Ann Rittenhouse, this year's cheerleaders made all Winchester proud of them.

Tumblettes

Before each football game this year, the ten tumblettes marched on the field ahead of the band, their new uniforms (bright red pleated skirts, white shirts, and black sweaters) complementing those of the cheerleaders.

At the half, led by Co-Captains Shirley Bingham and Alice Dunn, they put on their show while the band played appropriate tunes. Each week their show was different; each week it was more exciting.

Although six years of existence makes them one of the younger organizations at W.H.S., the tumblettes have improved and expanded their repertoire each season until now not only the Sachem fans, but the opposing team fans as well, eagerly await a performance of the Sachem tumblettes.

Girls' Field Hockey

Only three veterans returned this year; but, through determination, enthusiasm, and a general love of the game, the 1959 Field Hockey team did well.

Under Sue Fisher as Captain, and All-American inner, Miss Eleanor Keady, as Coach, the squad compiled a record of 5 wins, a tie with Windsor School of Portland, Maine, a private school, and a loss to Milton Academy, another private school.

Paula Collins and Roberta Mulford, both up from the JV's, combined to score 13 of the team's 16 goals.

In compiling a 4 win, 3 loss record, the JV team grew strong as the season progressed, and by the end of the season were all working as a unit.

Girls' Basketball

With Nausea (The mascot), providing the luck, Coach Mildred Barnes providing the strategy, and the squad providing the ability, the Sachemette basketball team of 1959-1960 won six of their eight games.

Four letter winners returned this year, co-captain Paula Collins, and Joy Ann Mitchell, forwards; co-captain Sue Mucera, and Sue Fisher, guards. Joy Ann's unbelievable long shot netted her 99 points; Paula Collins was close behind with 87. Sue Mucera was a standout in the rebound interception department. New comers to the Varsity this year were: Karen Kollegian, Julie Palmer, Joan Denton, Sue Koch, Barb Stewart, and Roberta Mulford.

The J V's with Frosh on the squad for the first time, wound up with a 5-3 record.

By starting practice in the gym when frost was still in the ground, and then moving outside when the weather permitted, The Sachemette Softball team was well prepared for its first opponent, Belmont, on May 6.

In that time coach Mildred Barnes molded seven returning letter winners and a group of JV's into a powerful squad with excellent chances of bettering the 1959 record of 4 wins and 2 losses.

Barbara Stewart and Priscilla Horn pitched, while Joan McCourt and Carol Parker guarded the plate. Marie Enright, Nancy Fessenden, Karen Kollegian, and Julie Palmer patrolled the infield; and Mary Donovan, Paula Collins, Sue Mucera, and Gail Frotten rotated in the outfield.

Cross Country

From September to November the Sachem Harriers jogged around the Fells in their 6 oz. silk uniforms with only a handful of spectators to cheer them on. When the weather was the worst, they ran their best. In the driving rain and ankle-deep mud at the state meet, they turned in their best effort of the season, winning Class "C" with the lowest score (47 pts.) in the meet.

This year's team, co-captained by Don Brown and Phil Nichols and coached by Mr. Morse, was one of the best-balanced and spirited teams that Winchester Cross Country has produced.

Football

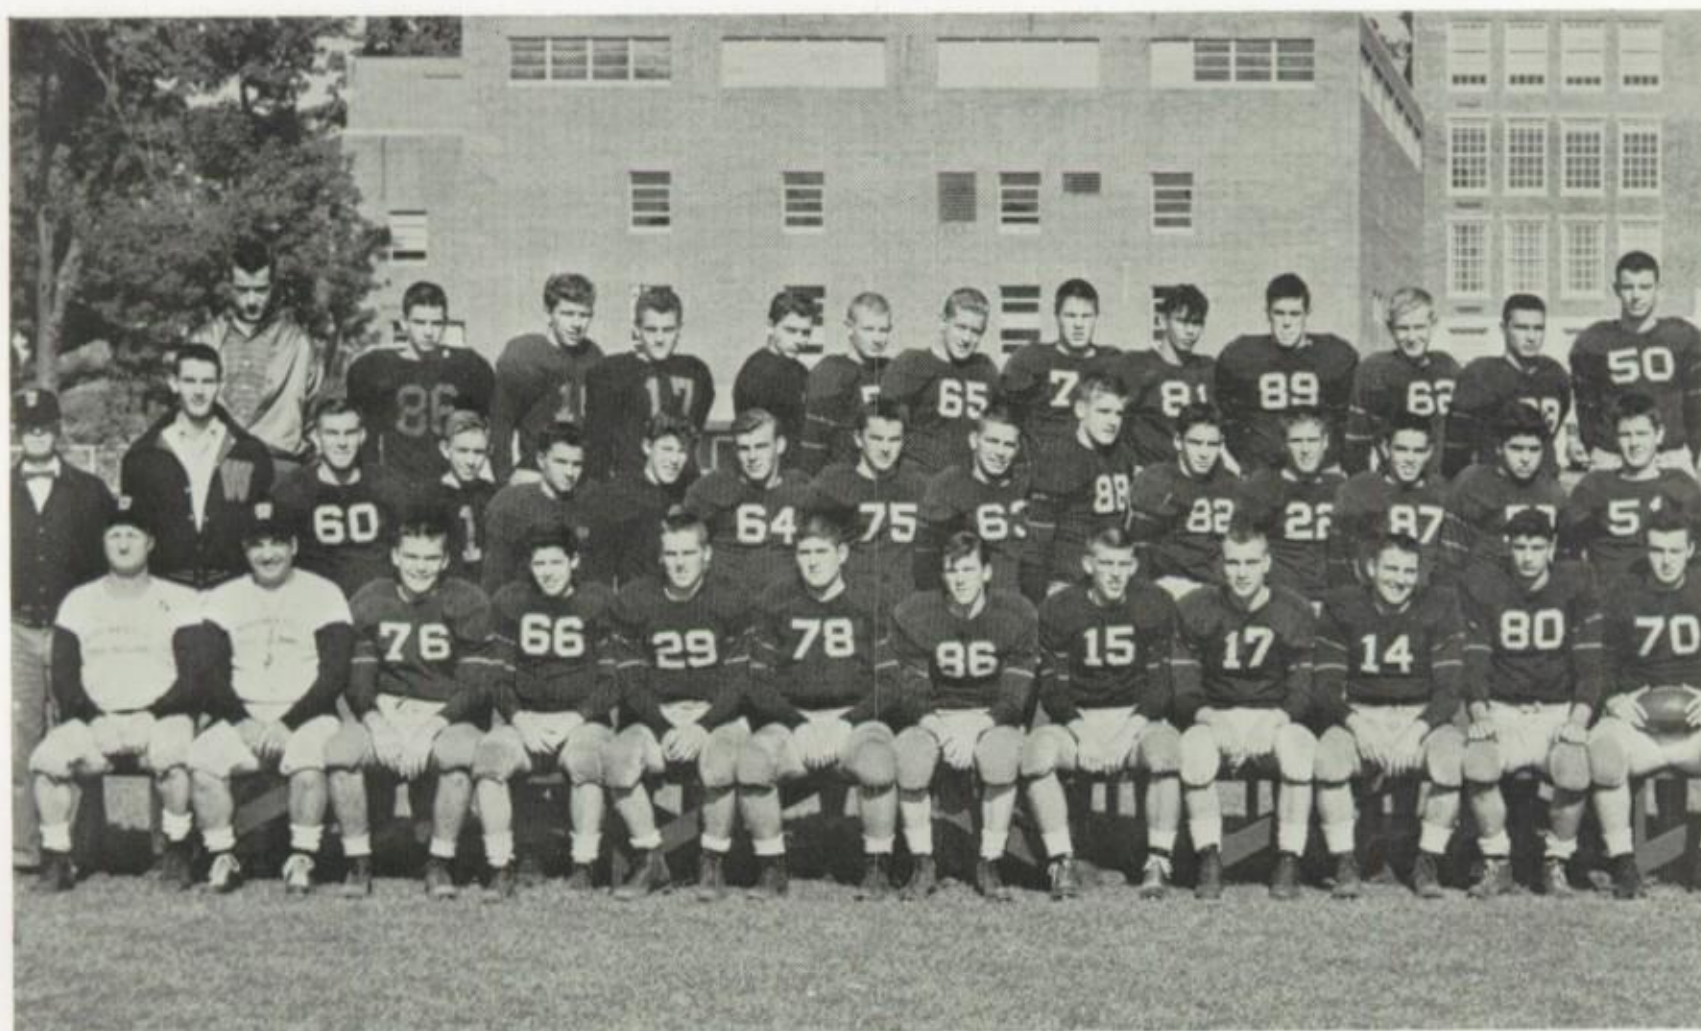

The Sachems, under the direction of Coach Knowlton, posted another fine winning season, finishing second to Melrose in the Middlesex League race.

Ably captained by Dick Winn, the Sachems finished the season with a record of seven wins and only two losses. Winchester began the season with successive wins over Concord, Stoneham, Cambridge Latin, and Lexington, outscoring the opposition 144-46 in the four games. However, a fired-up Reading squad ended Winchester's win streak at four, as they stunned the Sachems 30-12. After defeating Belmont, Winchester dropped its second game of the season to Melrose 14-8 in what was, perhaps, the most exciting game of the season. The Sachems then rebounded to win their final two games over Wakefield and Woburn.

For their play in the annual Thanksgiving Day game with Woburn, Dick Winn was chosen outstanding lineman, and quarterback Dana Kelly outstanding back.

After having tall teams for so many years, Winchester surprised opponents this year with a smaller, faster, quintet. Led by Captain Vandy French and coached by Mr. Jim Phillips, the squad had a 17 win, 3 loss record with a lower than usual scoring average of 69 points per game and a higher than usual shooting average of 48%.

Instead of periennial Belmont, Lexington's minute-men were Winchester's chief opponents in the Middlesex League race this year. Lexington topped Winchester 64-58 in their first meeting, but the Sachems bounced back with a resounding 67-46 upset. Meanwhile, Reading surprised Lexington 46-40 and Wakefield eked out a 74-73 victory over Winchester. As a result Lexington and Winchester with identical 12-2 records shared the coveted Middlesex League crown.

Having drawn a first round bye, the Sachems' first tech tourney opponent was Milton, in the class B quarter final round. Bill Leighton single handedly brought the team from 8 points behind in the last moments to win 62-61.

Each player this year (center Paul White, forwards Bob Freeman and Paul DelRossi, guards Vandy French and Billy Leighton, and subs Roger Deminico, Phil Nichols, Bill Wilson, and Frank Leverone) was a real star; but all combined successfully to make another great Sachem Basketball team.

Enjoying their most successful season since the championship team of 1955, this year's Sachem hockey team compiled an amazing 17-2-3 record. Participating in the newly formed Middlesex League after several years in the Northeast Division of the North Shore, the Sachems emerged as Middlesex League champs by downing such hockey powers as Belmont and Melrose. This year's squad, ably captained by Dana Kelley and coached by Mr. Finigan, was undefeated in league competition. The only black marks on the Sachem's records were ties with Wakefield and second place Melrose. Center Bill Lamarche was league leading scorer for the second successive season, tallying a total of 44 points on 30 goals and 14 assists. The hockey cheerleaders, with their bright colored uniforms, were missed by fans and players alike this year. Here's hoping they return next year to give their encouragement to the team.

The Sachem's qualified for the State Tourney, defeating Weymouth and Needham, before losing to Auburn 5-4 in the semi-finals. With only two lettermen, Bob Tierney and Billy Callahan returning next year, Coach Finigan is counting on this year's reserve to help the Sachem's retain their hockey title.

"... almost twice as good as any team I have ever coached." This was coach Isadore Battino's opinion of the gym team this year. In its fifth season, only two of which have been varsity ones, the gym team had depth and excellence in every event.

Led by Captain Alex Houlding, who starred on the parallel bars and placed consistently on the high bars, the squad overpowered all opponents. Other outstanding members of the team included Richard Keene (highbar and tumbling), John McDonough (flying rings), John Geoghegan (still rings), and Richard Hodge (flying rings).

While achieving their goals of strength, co-ordination, and flexibility, the boys also won a large number of fans through their exciting matches and exhibitions.

With the first sign of spring, Coach Provinzano will again lead some fifty hopefuls through those "rough" calisthenics. This year's squad promises to improve last year's season record of nine wins and six losses.

The outlook for the coming '60 season is exceptionally bright with a fine array of returning lettermen. The mound staff, led by Captain Paul Del Rossi, will include lettermen Vandy French and Eddie Ehr Gott. Infield positions will be filled by Bill Leighton, Gardy Gray, and Frank Leverone, all experienced lettermen. Up from last year's championship JV team will be Larry Capodilupo and Dale Grinnell, who will be scrambling for infield spots. While Carl Arlanson, George Neville, and Bobby Freeman patrol the outfield, Roger DeMinico will be handling the catching duties. With many promising sophomores and juniors fighting for positions, this year's team should have an excellent season.

Boys' Tennis

Behind the capable coaching of Mr. McGhee, this year's Sachem tennis team is looking forward to improving upon last season's record of six wins and four losses. Captained by "Marcel" Branch, the team has a fine nucleus of returning lettermen in Sam Cady, Paul Ryan, Dave Shean, and Parker Gray. The remaining positions will be filled by a fine group of junior and sophomore candidates.

This year's schedule will include such traditional rivals among private school ranks as Belmont Hill, Groton, Andover, and Middlesex. In addition, the squad will face Middlesex League opponents in Reading, Concord, Melrose, Lexington, Wakefield, and Belmont.

Second only to Belmont in league competition last year, the Sachems plan to start practicing on the Palmer courts as soon as spring sets in. The squad is also eager to improve upon last year's third place finish in the state meet, which will mark the climax of the tennis season.

G. Pettingell, M. Dyer, J. Powers, G. Porter, J. Denton.

Girls' Tennis

With five returning letter winners, the Sachemette tennis team had the outstanding record of two defeats in the past three seasons to live up to this year.

By mid April, the ground was soft enough for practice to begin at the Palmer Courts. Coached by Miss Joan Collins, they practiced daily for their matches with Belmont, Concord, Newton, Arlington, Lexington, and Malden.

Led by Judy Powers, a really avid and determined racqueteer, the Varsity included Martha Dyer, Gayle Porter, Joan Denton, and Gail Pettingell.

Contesting for the remaining two squad positions on the tennis ladder were Hilary Beal, Sue Koch, Betty Bixler, and Tricia Buros.

Row 1: M. MacKenzie, H. Phillips, P. Nichols, D. Bentley, D. Brown, R. Mitchell, D. Penner, D. Bates. Row 2: Mr. Battino, P. Francis, B. Cullen, T. Dashbach, B. Doten, J. Marchant, B. Nichols, T. Reynolds. Row 3: G. Tisdale, L. Keene, L. Shea, D. Kelley, J. Russo, J. Hophins, T. Hinton, F. Curtis. Row 4: D. Migliaccio, L. Dattilo, J. MacDonald, E. Crotty, B. Harrington, R. Bennincasa, J. Migliaccio, R. Sansone, J. Oliver.

Track

The combination of an improved team and a weaker league to compete in gave the Sachem track men hopes for one of the best seasons in previous years.

Mid March saw ten returning lettermen and a large number of Sophomores and JV's out practicing under the direction of Coach Isadore Battino.

Top man on the team was Captain Dave Bentley who broke the 160 Low Hurdles Record of 20.2 seconds eight times last year and his own record three times in setting a new school record of 18.6 seconds.

Other strong and improved men were Roger Mitchell, Joe Russo, and Dean Anderson in the mile, Don Brown, Phil Nichols, and Leroy Shea in the 880, Dana Kelly and Brian Cullen in the javelin, Paul White and Chris Stavaridis in the shot put department, and Sandy Cochran in the 100 yd. dash.

Golf Team

Under the able direction and guidance of Coach Finigan, this year's golf squad will again take to the links of the Winchester Country Club. Competing against representatives from the other Middlesex League schools, the Sachem "divot takers" hope to improve upon last season's mediocre record. Leading the Winchester linksmen in the coming season will be returning lettermen Roger Griffin, Joe Logan, and Robbie Eaton. Underclassmen Teddy Neil, Frank Johnson, and Nelly Andresen will provide the team with the needed experience and balance for a successful season. The remaining positions on the ten man squad will be contested for by the many underclassmen who are expected out for the team.

As has been the custom in past years, the members of this year's golf team will receive valuable instruction from the pro at the Winchester Country Club between matches.

Row 1: T. Dashback, C. Arlanson, P. White, C. Stavaridis, D. Kelly, W. Allen, E. Ehrgott, B. Errico, D. Scott, B. Cullen, J. Hosmer. Row 2: D. Brown, T. Cox, L. Capodilupo, V. French, B. Freeman, R. Mitchell, P. Nichols, T. Purtle, B. Lamarche, R. Eaton, G. Tisdale, D. Orgettas, Coach Knowlton. Row 3: D. Bates, T. Kimball, D.

Grinnell, S. Cochran, J. Capone, G. Gray, R. Griffin, R. Carter, J. Reardon, H. Phillips, J. Logan, R. DeMinico, A. Houlding. Row 4: W. Callahan, M. Brink, G. Neville, J. Brenner, B. Leighton, P. Luitwieler, R. McCormack, N. Anderson, R. Shea, L. Keene, A. Collucci, J. Cullen, P. Branch.

Varsity Club

Members of the Varsity Club consist of male athletes who have won a varsity letter in any sport. Direction of the club is in the hands of our capable football coach, Henry Knowlton.

The main function of the Varsity Club is to promote good sportsmanship, not only on the field of play, but also in everyday school activities. To support the expenses of the Athletic Association and the taking of football movies, the club puts on an annual student-faculty basketball game. This event highlights the end of the winter sports season and has always proved to be a great success. The Varsity Club also sponsors special events throughout the school year. The fine exhibition by the Springfield Gym Team, which was enjoyed by parents and students alike last year, is one such special event sponsored by the Varsity Club.

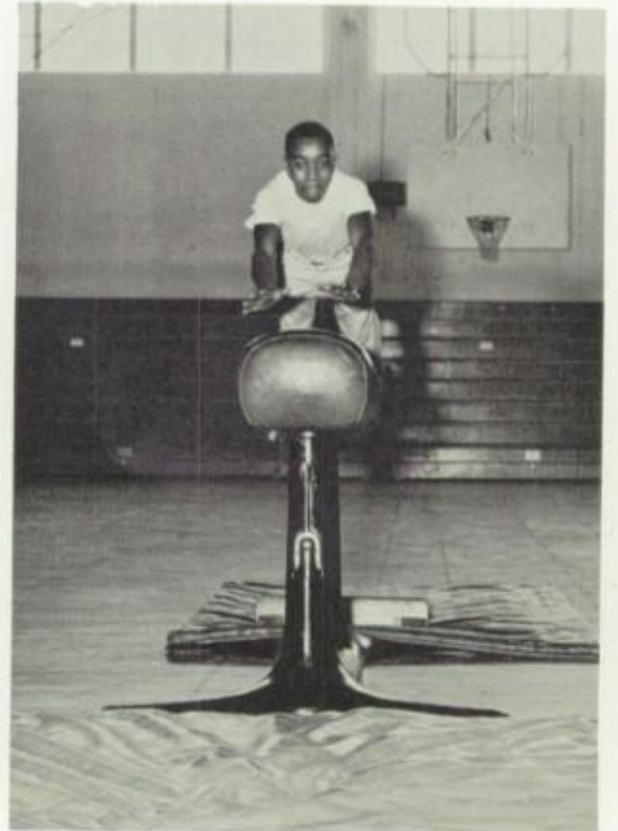

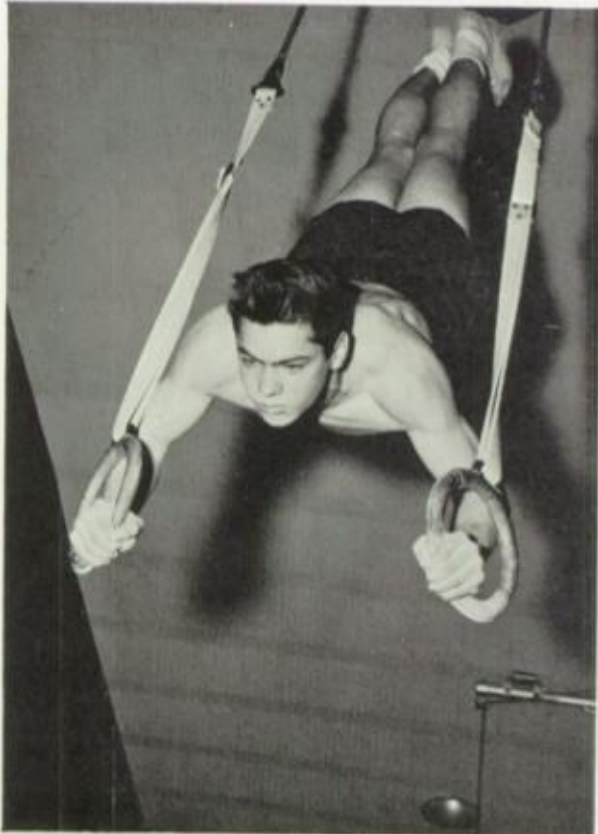

This year's officers, headed by President Dana Kelly, have done an excellent job in organizing the club's activities. Club membership has increased substantially this year, as a result of the increased participation in varsity sports.
